

Welcome! During the Worship Services

In worship, the people read the bold print and a liturgist reads the regular print. Worship guides or notations are italicized.

“†” indicates to please stand as you are able.

① A Prayer on the Day of Pentecost

O God, Holy Spirit, come to us; be among us; come as wind to guide us; come as fire to cleanse us; come as dew to refresh us. Convict, convert, and consecrate our many hearts and lives to the greater and common good and to Your great glory. We pray this in Your holy name. Amen.

Based on a prayer written by Eric Milner-White (UMH #335)

② Vision Statement

It is our vision to be a community of faith as loving and considerate of persons as Jesus; as devoted to justice as the Old Testament prophets; as responsive to truth as science; as beautiful as art; as intimate as the home; and as indispensable as the air we breathe.

Based on the Founders' Statement of the Congregational Church in Lee, MA, 1778

Dr. Joyce Jones, Guest Organist

Joyce Jones has devoted her professional life to making friends for the organ, through Community Concerts, countless organ dedications, children's concerts, and "Access to Music" programs. She has been widely acclaimed since making her debut with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra as the only organist ever to win the prestigious G. B. Dealey award. She has played in 49 states and 12 foreign countries.

Joyce Jones is the Joyce Oliver Bowden Professor of Organ and Organist in Residence at Baylor University in Texas, which also named her Outstanding Creative Artist. She earned the Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Texas and a Master of Sacred Music degree in composition from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, which presented her with its Distinguished Service Award in 1989. She has recorded for Word, Rosenhaus, and Motette Records. She is a Fellow of the American Guild of Organists and the composer of numerous published works, including the organ method "King of Instruments."

Dr. Jones' numerous engagements include such venues as the Riverside Church, the Mormon Tabernacle, Notre Dame Cathedral, Chartres Cathedral, and the Meyerson Symphony Center. She was the first woman to perform on the organ at the Crystal Cathedral, the first organist to play for the Grand Teton Music Festival, and the only woman organist chosen to play with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra at the inauguration of the Ruffatti organ in Davies Symphony Hall.

She has been featured soloist at many regional and national conventions of the American Guild of Organists, including the centennial convention in New York City in 1996, for which The American Organist magazine praised her playing as "vibrant and elegant," with her pedal virtuosity acclaimed as "stunning." Of her Worcester, Massachusetts concert in June, 1999, The American Organist reported that "Her amazing technique and depth of understanding through memorization brought the crowd screaming to its feet."

Wherever she plays, she is committed to making friends for the organ. Wherever she goes, she is committed to sharing her Christian testimony through music.
