Eastside Park Refurbishment

As a gift to our community for our 150th year, we took the bold step of leading the refurbishment of a nearby park that was unsafe for our neighbors. Partnering with the city of Fort Collins, we were able to raise over $225,000 for Eastside Park improvements. Our fund raising team has done an outstanding job of inspiring generosity toward this project. With the financial support of so many of our church members and community partners this fundraising effort has achieved our goal, and we could not be more thankful. Good work, First Church! Let us continue to Inspire Hope, Grow in Faith and Serve with Joy.

United Methodist Women December Meeting

United Methodist Women invites you to join us at 11:30 in the parlor on Thursday, December 12th as we install officers for 2020 and celebrate this holy season of Christ's birth. Festive decorations, delicious sweets and treats, friendly faces and a musical Christmas program given by Karen Stody and Keilani McConnell assure us of enjoying the spirit of the season. It is a perfect ending to our year's theme, "Sisterhood of Grace", as we remember the 150 years of women dedicated to fulfilling Christ's mission.

The Children's Choirs of First Church
Wednesday, December 11 • 6:00 p.m. • Sanctuary

Children meet at 5:00 for final rehearsal on December 11
Dress Rehearsal is Sunday, December 8 from 3:00 - 4:30 p.m. (After Advent Workshop)

Children who have participated in the choir this fall and are in the musical will have a FREE party at Urban Air in January. Date and Time of the party is TBA.

Dear First Church Family,

We have been busy in the children's ministry wing creating items for a time capsule in honor of our 150th year of ministry in this community. The kids have been busy making paper quilts and filling out cards about what they love about our church. We have plans to put one of the paper quilts, the cards that say what they love about our church, a Vacation Bible School shirt, some photos of the kids and of course a stuffed donut (we definitely need to recognize the importance of donuts at this church). We plan on putting these items in a time capsule, and 25 years later it will be opened. Some of us may or may not still be a part of the church community, but hopefully these mementos will convey how important these kids are, in the children's program to future generations.

"Into the world, this demented Inn, in which there is absolutely no room for him, Christ comes...uninvited."* Thomas Merton

Jesus was always an outsider, born outside of comfort and respectability and murdered outside the city walls. From the manger to the cross, he was on the outside his entire life. The majority of people never accepted or understood his message or mission. Thomas Merton was right, it is a demented world, with no room for Christ.

And yet.... Christ still comes, persistently and patiently, which is the ongoing miracle of Christmas. Year after year we commemorate the reality that God has reached out to us in human form, offering a fresh way of looking at the world, offering goodness and light. In the birth of Christ, God reveals an innocence and tenderness at the heart of things.

Because of Christ's coming, we have the assurance that somehow everything is going to be alright. We need not be afraid of life or death, for there is one who helps bear our griefs and carry our sorrows. In spite of everything sad, strange, and beyond our comprehension, ultimately all will be well.

It is one of the great mysteries of our faith that what was true over 2,000 years ago is true for us now. After all these years, the birth of Christ still has the power to rekindle hope and joy in human hearts. We can dare to believe that innocence and goodness are not illusions, power and might do not always win, miracles are possible, and God is with us even now.

Please join us often during these days of Advent, as we prepare ourselves for this world changing birth once again. May your Christmas be miraculous and blessed.

FUMC Preschool Christmas Service Project

As part of FUMC's mission we see our preschool as a way to live out the message of God's love in the community. This Christmas season the preschool will again be helping the Larimer County Foster Adoptive Parent Association with their annual Christmas Party. Each year the LCFPA hosts a Christmas Party for 300 children currently in foster care in Larimer County.

Preschool and Church families can help by supplying gifts for these special children in our community. A tree with the tags will be in the south hallway, please take a tag off the tree and gather one to three items on the list, (do not feel everything on the tag needs to be purchased), wrap them and return them with the tag attached to the tree. These gifts do not have to be purchased they just need to be gifts from the heart.

You may choose as many names as you would like but they must be returned to the tree no later than Sunday DECEMBER 15th.

Thank-you for helping these special families of our community.

Questions please call Preschool Director Kelly Boettger at 970-482-0343 or preschooldir@fcfumc.net.

Adult Faith Formation Book Study

Wearing God Book Study: A study of Lauren Winner's Wearing God: Clothing, Laughter, Fire, and Other Overlooked Ways of Meeting God will start Jan. 15 and run four consecutive Wednesdays at noon and 7 p.m. beginning Jan. 15.

Winner is Associate Professor of Christian spirituality at Duke University Divinity School and an Episcopal priest and vicar of a congregation in North Carolina. She is the author of four previous books, including Still: Notes on a Mid-Life Faith Crisis.

Author Barbara Brown Taylor had this to say about Winner's new work: "Lauren Winner's curiosity about the life of faith is so compelling—and her intelligence so engaging—that there is nothing more satisfying than settling down with a new book from her. The only problem is that is impossible to read her without being changed."

David Reid will facilitate all sessions. Books are available for $11 at the Adult Faith Formation table in Fellowship Hall on Sunday mornings.

Church and Society Committee Christmas Project

There will be a large tub in fellowship hall to collect gifts for these children until December 15. Please contribute to this wonderful tradition so the children of families in need can receive a gift. Information, jodhop@hotmail.com
