From Dr. Melanie Rosa, lead pastor...

The Ringling Barnum and Bailey travelling circus has finally closed down for good. After 146 years its demise was in response to a prolonged slump in ticket sales that made their future unsustainable. Began in 1871 as PT Barnum's Grand travelling Museum and Menagerie, the Greatest Show On Earth had 500 performers, 100 animals, and always travelled via mile long trains. Before the very last show in New York Ringmaster John Iverson said, "The world is losing a place of wonder, the last pure and wholesome form of entertainment there is."

I remember attending the circus as a child with my parents, watching the elephants, lions, clowns, and the trapeze artists, who enchanted me most of all. They fearlessly leapt from one trapeze to another, to our astonished gasps. They did what seemed impossible, insane, and did it with grace and trust.

What lessons can we learn from trapeze artists? At times we must be willing to let go of that which is known and familiar. This is difficult, but letting go of some things is a prerequisite for embracing other things. It is essential for growth and new life. Occasionally we find ourselves suspended in a place of groundlessness. We all know the feeling of having our lives suddenly change, being weightless and vulnerable. We are called to embrace that sense of uncertainty with the hope that something good lies ahead. Finally, we must believe that a second trapeze will be there! This is what faith is all about, the capacity to trust. For those who trust in the invisible can do the impossible.

Living between trapezes can be unnerving, yet it can be a time of significant growth. We always live in between one place and another; human life is a process constantly unfolding. We are a pilgrim people. This is what our sermon series is about the next six weeks: living between trapezes, making the journey our home. We are moving into a new future together, sustained by God's grace. In this season of change let us trust that (unlike the travelling circus) our church has the potential to be a lasting and vibrant place of wonder, love, and praise.

September Sermon Series: The Journey Is Our Home

As long as we live we are on a journey toward our true home with God. It is a journey of deep delight and occasional despair, profound lessons and heartbreaking loss. People of faith are a pilgrim people who never to arrive at their destination. God gives us a purpose and a future beyond the end of earthly life, for "...though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed every day." We are on a journey together, and God is our guardian and guide. Please join us each week during the sermon series: "The Journey Is Our Home."

- ♦ August 27—"The Journey Is Transforming" Genesis 28:10-17; Revelation 21:5-6
- ♦ September 3—"The Journey Is Strange" Jonah 1:1-17; Matthew 5:1-11
- ♦ September 10—"The Journey Is Not Easy" Genesis 37:3-8; 12-24; Luke 9:23-24
- ♦ September 17—"The Journey Is Shared" Ruth 1:1-18; John 15:4-6
- ♦ September 24—"The Journey Is Our Home" Matthew 4:18-25; Hebrews 11:13-16

Thank you First Family!

by Dr. Melanie Rosa

We surpassed our July Food Drive goal of 5,000 pounds! 2,506 lbs. of food + $1750 in cash @ 3 lbs. per dollar = 7,253 pounds. I was able to visit the Food Bank for Larimer County and meet with Executive Director Amy Pezzani, tour the facility, and present our check for $1,750. Thank you all for your generosity toward the 10% of people in our community who are food insecure. Special thanks to our Youth who went door to door in their neighborhoods collecting food, and Community and World Outreach for all of their help. You may continue to donate food at the Mission Corner in Fellowship Hall any time.

(Melanie Rosa, Amy Pezzani, Bonnie Thomas)

Advent Daily Devotional

by Cindi-Ross Bell

This year, as in years past, First Church will produce a Daily Devotional Booklet for the Advent Season. This is an opportunity for our faith community to come together during this most holy time. We are inviting the members and guests of First Church to submit writings to be placed in the booklet as space allows.

Please limit your writings to 300 words or less, and have them to us no later than October 1st. You can submit them to the church office, or send them to Cindi Ross-Bell at falcor@frii.com. Thank you in advance for being part of this important and meaningful Advent Daily Devotional Booklet.

Interested in Cub Scouts?

by Matt Putman

On Thursday August 31st from 7-8 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall, Pack 98, which is chartered by FUMC, will be having an informational and scout year kick-off for all those thinking about joining Cub Scouts. Not familiar with Cub Scouts? Cub Scouting helps boys become "Prepared for Life" and seeks to help build character, teach citizenship, and develop personal fitness for all boys grades Kinder – 5th.

We have one Pack Meeting held at FUMC each month, and two to three Den Meetings in which boys will work on achievements, sing songs, play games, and learn good citizenship. Boys can join scouting at any point, so we would love to have any interested join our Pack. For information or questions, please contact Matt Putman (Charter Organization Representation) at put83co@yahoo.com or visit www.pack98.com.

United Methodist Women

by Beverly Winsett

All women of the church are invited to join United Methodist Women on Sunday, September 10 as we celebrate our purpose by sharing our circles' local projects as well as the bigger picture of what UMW does. By our mission giving and action, we give help and hope to ninety-eight National Mission Institutions in our country and many worthwhile causes around the world.

We have a 148 year legacy that we are proud to uphold with opportunities for fellowship, spiritual growth, as well as new insights and information through studies, reading programs, retreats, and an assembly every four years that draws women from all over the world.

The potluck lunch will be at noon in Fellowship Hall, followed by our program and a presentation of Special Mission Recognition Pins, given to women or men who have contributed much to UMW or the church.

Our vision is to turn faith, hope and love into action on behalf of women, children, and youth around the world. Come join us in our vision! The welcome mat is out for you!

Habitat Stone Soup Build September - October

by Jim Collinson

FUMC is participating in a Stone Soup Build with Thrivent Financial and several other local churches in the new Harmony Habitat addition at the southeast corner of Taft Hill and Harmony roads. We are asking for financial support throughout September with a visit by a Habitat family in Fellowship Hall on September 10. We have scheduled a build day on Saturday, October 21.

In addition to financial support, we need volunteers for construction and providing lunches for the working crew. No special building skills are required. Jobs are available for everyone and you have a chance to learn many new things by participating in the building of a house. This is the fifth Habitat house in Fort Collins that our church has supported.

Please stop by at the Mission Corner (NW Fellowship Hall) to get more information, pledge financial support, and sign up for the build day on October 21. You may also call Jim Collinson (377-9687) or Keith Metcalf (226-5452).

Dear Church,

These are exciting times and I am glad you are currently a part of God's mission and ministry through First Church. I feel humbled and thrilled to have the opportunity to serve and be on this journey with you. In July and August I saw many of you who I have not seen in a long time and some who I only knew by name – Welcome Home! There were also many first time and returning guests and out of state and town visitors – Welcome! One Sunday we were visited by people from as many as six states – Illinois, Florida, Arizona, Texas, Alaska, and Ohio.

Exciting times are definitely accompanied by exciting opportunities. These are some of the upcoming opportunities:

New Member Sunday: If you have been attending First Church for a while, do consider becoming a member of this vibrant church. We are receiving new members on August 27 at all worship services.

Kick Off Sunday: To kick off the new school and ministry year we will be having a love feast (meal of fellowship together) on August 27 starting at 10:30 a.m. with lots of food and fun for kids and adults. We will also be kicking off our Children and Youth programs at the church.

Exodus in Seven Weeks: I will be offering this Bible study on the book of Exodus for seven weeks on Wednesday nights starting in October.

Enjoy the rest of the summer. Welcome Home!

Blessings,

Cynthia

Welcoming, Hospitality & Discipleship (WHD) Ministry

by Martha Conant

by Martha Conant

The core team of the WHD ministry consists of Martha Conant (leader), Pam Raab (Welcoming, starting in January), Marjie Woodring (Hospitality), and Connie Mahan (Discipleship + Welcoming through December). Our role is to welcome guests to our church, inform and invite people to become part of our community, and to connect them into the life of the church. Of course there are tasks, responsibilities and activities that we're moving forward on. For example, we're looking at all aspects of how we welcome guests on Sunday mornings. Volunteers will be an important component of the WHD ministry, but we want the entire congregation to be involved as well. What kind of community we want to be? Do we want to be multi-generational? Do we want to be a community that holds a range of theological and political beliefs? When we all hold in our minds and hearts the kind of welcoming community we want for ourselves and for the world, we send those who walk through our doors a message that says "Welcome!"

Providing Water Supplies for Northern Colorado – Past, Present, and Future

If you ever attend our 11:00 worship service, you will probably see long time church member, Eric Wilkinson, on duty as usher, helping others as they come and go to that service. Eric was born and raised in the Fort Collins, attended CSU, and graduated in 1973 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Civil Engineering. We are so fortunate to have him as our speaker this month at the Double Nickel Senior Lunch on Friday, September 8 at 12:00 noon in the parlor – he is an expert on a topic that is of great importance to all of us, Providing Water Supplies for Northern Colorado – Past, Present, and Future.

Mr. Wilkinson has served as General Manager of the Northern Colorado Water Conservancy District (Northern Water) and its Municipal Sub district since January 1994. He has worked for Northern Water since 1987. From 1984 to 1987, he worked for the City of Greeley Water Department as a Water Resources Engineer. From 1973 to 1984, he was employed by the Colorado Division of Water Resources, Office of the State Engineer in the Dam Safety Branch. In 1972, he served as the Deputy Water Commissioner for the Cache la Poudre River.

In March 2000, Mr. Wilkinson was appointed as the South Platte Basin representative on the Colorado Water Conservation Board and served in that capacity until February 2012. In 2003 and in 2011, he served as Chairman of the Colorado Water Conservation Board. He served as one of two representatives of the South Platte Basin on the Interbasin Compact Committee (IBCC) from the creation of the IBCC in 2005 until December, 2015. In 2011 he was the recipient of the Aspinall Award, given annually in recognition of a career of service and contribution to Colorado's water community. Eric also serves on various advisory boards and committees and is on the Board of Directors of Colorado Water Congress.

We are so fortunate that he will be presenting to us at our September Double Nickel program. Don't miss this special program and another great $4 lunch – the best $4 lunch in town!

If you'd like to volunteer to help before or after the meal or to give others a ride to the Double Nickel Lunch, contact Linn Zink (see below).

Financial Update

by Dr. Melanie Rosa

"Where your treasure is your heart will be also." (Matthew 6:21) The financial leaders of your church want you to know that over the last decade our church has experienced financial challenges resulting in a large deficit which we are working hard to reverse. We need the prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness of our faithful members and friends in order to regain our financial stability and acquire positive momentum for the future. And that momentum is already happening! July giving was the best in 3 years and the 3rd highest month in 3 years. As a volunteer organization, we rely completely upon your generosity, for which we are most grateful. Do not hesitate to contact Finance Chair Dave Rubenthaler or Dr. Melanie Rosa if you have questions.

Dr., Rev., or Pastor?

Which should I use when referring to our pastors?

You may be wondering what the proper prefix is when addressing, writing, or speaking of our pastors. At their request, we are no longer referring to Melanie and Cynthia as "Pastor" in written documents and they have asked not to be referred to as "Pastor" in person either.

In written formal settings they will be referred to as Dr. Melanie Rosa and Rev. Cynthia Paquette. When we are speaking about them to groups, we have been asked to refer to them as Rev. Melanie and Rev. Cynthia, and when addressing them in person, either Rev. Melanie and Rev. Cynthia or simply Melanie and Cynthia.

Rev. Cynthia does hold a PhD, but not in a field of religious study. Therefore, in written settings such as the bulletin, her title is Rev. Cynthia Paquette.

Handbell News

by Karen Stoody

Carillon Handbell Choir and the newly formed beginner group, the Alleluia Handbell Ensemble, began rehearsals again in mid August. We have 24 ringers on our rosters, and several others who are willing to sub from time to time! The ALLELUIA HANDBELL ENSEMBLE rehearses on THURSDAYS at 4:30 p.m., and the CARILLON HANDBELL CHOIR continues to meet on WEDNESDAYS at 6:00 p.m. We will have Andrew Hudson playing bell solos for worship on September 3, and the Carillon Handbell Choir will play on September 10.

When the bells participate in worship in September, they will be wearing brand new cuffed robes that match the Sanctuary Choir robes. These robes were purchased by a gracious anonymous donor, and we are extremely thankful for this gift!

One or both of the handbell groups will be sharing music with you in worship every month, so you will see the fruits of our labor often.

For more information on bells, contact Karen Stoody: karstoo@earthlink.net.

Adult Faith Formation

by David Reid

Supper in the Spirit returns Sept. 13 with dinner and activities for children, teens, parents and other adults. Here's the schedule for the 10-week session that runs Sept. 13 through Nov. 15 with one additional meal on Dec. 6 before the children's musical:

- Supper (5:30-6 p.m.) – A light dinner will be available in the Parlor for a reasonable price. Until we find a new cook, meals will be catered, resulting in a slightly higher cost per plate than last spring.
- Kids Chimes Choir (6-7 p.m.) – Children from first grade up meet in the Rhythm Road Room to learn the proper method of hand chime ringing. The choir performs occasionally for Sunday worship. Music director David Adkins (choirdir@fcfmc.net) directs.
- Child Care (6-7 p.m.) – Child care will be available in the nursery for every session of Supper in the Spirit.
- Carillon Bells (6-7:15 p.m.) – Karen Stoody, associate director of music ministries, directs this group of veteran bell choir players, which plays frequently during Sunday worship services. Contact Karen at karstoo@earthlink.net.
- Echo Groups (6-7 p.m.) – Echo groups will be offered for students in grades 6-12. The groups are designed to lead students into small-group accountability and discipleship. Students from all stages of their faith journey are invited into a better understanding of the Gospel, a renewed commitment to their personal faith journey, and into greater depths of faith, all within the community of others. Rebecca Dunagan (youth@fcfmc.net), director of youth ministries, leads these sessions in the youth basement.
- The God We Can Know (6-7 p.m.) – Beginning Sept. 13, Rev. Melanie will lead this 6-week study that explores the “I am” sayings of Jesus found in the Gospel of John. These significant yet ordinary images (bread, light, shepherd, vine, and more) give us insightful ways to experience Jesus and point us to a God who wants to be known. The book costs $10 and can be ordered at the Adult Faith Formation (AFF) table on Sunday mornings or contact David Reid, director of adult faith formation, at davidreid24@gmail.com. Class meets in the Parlor.
- Awakening of Hope: Why We Practice a Common Faith (6-7 p.m.) – Starting Sept. 13, this 6-segment DVD series features Jonathan Wilson-Hartgrove, Shane Claiborne, William Barber and others. Various hosts for this series in Village Commons.
- Interrupted by Hope: Turning Toward Advent (6-7 p.m.) – Starting Oct. 25, this 4-session DVD series will include a number of short films featuring Barbara Brown Taylor, Richard Rohr, Parker Palmer and others. Various hosts for this series in Village Commons.
- Exodus in Seven Weeks (7-8:30 p.m.): Rev. Cynthia will offer this Bible study on the book of Exodus for seven weeks from Oct. 4 through Nov. 17.
- Martin Luther and the Day that Changed the World (7-8 p.m.) This study occurs later in the evening and runs 4 weeks (Sept. 13 – Oct. 4). We will utilize a new, small book from renowned historian Martin E. Marty to help understand the impacts of the Protestant Reformation, which began 500 years ago on Oct. 31, 1517. David Reid is the facilitator. Books are available for $15 at the AFF table.
- Way of Love: Recovering the Heart of Christianity (7-8 p.m.) Running Oct. 11-Nov. 15, this 6-week series is a study of Norman Wirzba's highly praised book published in 2016. Wirzba illustrates how our fractured world can be healed by making love central to the Christian faith. David Reid leads the discussion. Books will be available at the AFF table and sessions will be in Village Commons.

World Wisdoms Project (WWP)

by David Reid

World Wisdoms Project (WWP) will present its official debut program titled Improving the Dialogue Across Lines of Faith and Belief at 6:30 p.m. Sept. 12 in Fellowship Hall. The presenter will be Elizabeth Sink, senior teaching special instructor at Colorado State University and chair of programs and social concerns for the Fort Collins Interfaith Council.

World Wisdoms Project was formerly known as Theologian in Residence, an independent nonprofit that seeks to foster an interfaith conversation across the region. The new name reflects the type of boundary-crossing programming the organization has sponsored for several years.

WWP receives no funding from First Church or any other organization. A donation of $10 per program is suggested.

The theme for WWP programming this academic year is “Experiencing the Sacred: Sharing Wisdom in Music, Art, Story.” Additional events in the series this fall are:

- A World of Wisdom in Stories and Storytelling – Oct. 17 at Trinity Lutheran Church, 301 E. Stuart St. Presenters are Kathy Santopietro-Weddel, author and storyteller; Cherie Karo Schwartz, storyteller; and Rob Elms, storyteller.
- Music in End of Life Care – Nov. 7 in Fellowship Hall. Featured are Elaine Hild, musicologist; Beth Mosko, Pathways hospice; Lindsey Wilhelm, assistant professor of music therapy and coordinator of clinical practicum, CSU.
- Chant: Sounds of Faith, Joy and Hope – Date and location to be determined.

New Small Groups Forming

by David Reid

Several new small groups will be forming at First Church for this fall. They are:

- a men’s study group;
- a group for people in their 20s to mid-30s – singles and couples;
- a group for people in the sandwich generation, generally 40s and 50s; and
- new dining groups for those who didn’t get in on the launch of several such groups last January.

If you are interested in participating in any of the above or know of people who might, contact David Reid, (970) 581-2707 or davidreid24@gmail.com. Adult Faith Formation has responsibility for encouraging new small groups and helping people join existing groups.

Training to facilitate a small group is available as requested and is an essential component of forming a new group. For information or to discuss an idea for a new group, contact David.

Meanwhile, numerous long-term and short-term small groups are covenanting to work, study, dine, fellowship and pray together. Some brief updates:

- Theology on Tap has moved to 6:30 p.m. on the second Tuesday of the month;
- On Sept. 13, the Wednesday noon book group will launch a study of Martin E. Marty’s October 31, 1517: Martin Luther and the Day that Changed the World. Books are available at the AFF table on Sundays.

Children's Ministry

by Lynette Szantho

What's new in Sunday School?

We had such a great time this summer at our engaging amusement park-themed summer Sunday School. We learned about how our faith journey can feel like an adventure, filled with twists and turns and surprises along the way, but God is always with us during this ride of a lifetime!

As we gear up for another great year in Children's Ministries, we are excited to enhance our popular rotation-style Sunday school program with two new workshops. Each month, our K-4th grade kids focus on one Bible theme by rotating through workshops such as cooking, drama, art, and science and cinema. New for this year: Missions and Prayer & Spiritual Practices workshops. Kids will have the opportunity to bless our community with simple, short term service projects in the missions workshop, and spend quiet, reflective time in our beautiful prayer room exploring different blessing stations with hands-on activities. Come see what's new!

We've had a great summer getting to know our new 5th graders at Club 5.0! This awesome Sunday School/youth group will continue to meet during Sunday School time in the Club 5.0 room. Fifth graders are ready for deeper Bible learning and discussions as they begin to transition into the youth programs. We have a great year planned for you... don't miss it!

Be sure to join us at the Fall Kick Off on Sunday, August 27th! Stop by the children's check in desk to fill out a registration form and pick up a balloon. We'll release our balloons during the Children's Time, after a special back-to-school blessing. Our regular rotation Sunday School will also begin on the 27th!

Introducing, First Kids Club!

Beginning September 3, get ready for a new children's church option for kids in grades K-5! The First Kids Club will be offered on the first Sunday of the month during the 9:30 service. Join us for an all-in-one service just for kids, led by some of our amazing youth.

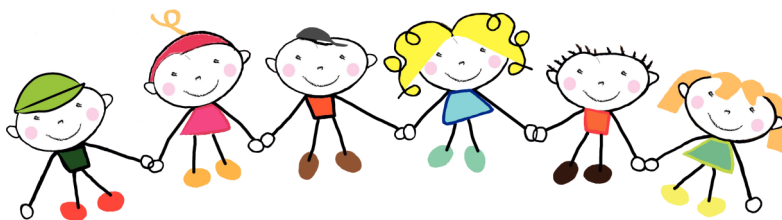

Our worship time together will be based on three basic, but powerful, truths modeled by Jesus in Luke 2:52.

- I need to make the wise choice.
- I can trust God no matter what.
- I should treat others the way I want to be treated.

Join us in the Cinema Center after the children's message for great music, fun skits, short engaging videos, Bible learning, and lots of worship. We will bring your kids back to you in the sanctuary, so you can participate in communion as a family. See you on the 3rd!

NEW! Sunday School Council

Our Children's Ministry department will be establishing a new council to focus solely on our Sunday school program. This small group will meet quarterly to evaluate and routinely enhance and improve our program, create an outreach strategy, update and refurbish our kids' spaces, and much more. This will be a great way to plug in to our kids' ministry behind the scenes. We're looking for parents, grandparents, Sunday School teachers and non-teachers. Anyone with a heart for kids' ministry! Please contact Lynette Szantho for more information. We'd love to have you!
