Welcome to the third issue of NoCo Beet.

Our goal is to deliver a monthly package of events, resources and ideas that you will find useful in your own faith formation.

Did your Christmas packages arrive on time? It's still too early to tell because Christmastide runs through January 5. On the other hand, it might technically be a bit late for Christmas Eve worship but we have two suggestions: participate again with the recorded service from First Church that is linked from the home page at <https://fcfumc.net/> and enjoy the mashup of the past three Christmas Eve services from United Methodist Church of the Resurrection that are linked below in the regional.

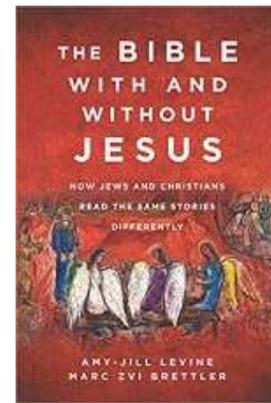

The Northern Colorado Faith Library is again closed to self-service due to higher levels of Covid-19 in our area. However, volunteers are standing by to deliver books and DVDs to your doorstep. Browse the catalog at fcf.scoolaid.net or contact me for suggestions and to schedule a delivery.

The Bible With and Without Jesus: How Jews and Christians Read the Same Stories Differently is a six-week study on Thursdays with sessions led by David Reid and Rev. Cynthia Paquette. Bible scholars

Amy-Jill Levine and Marc Zvi Brettler take readers on a tour of numerous Hebrew Bible stories referenced in the New Testament to reveal what the ancient texts meant in their original contexts and to show how and why the Jewish and Christian traditions find very different meanings in them.

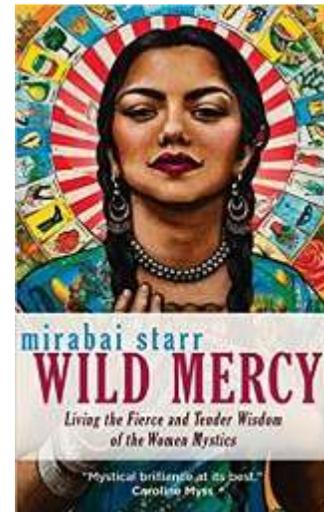

This study starts at 7 p.m. January 14. If demand is sufficient, a noon Thursday section will be added. Hardback $30; e-book $17. To register and obtain the Zoom link or for more information, contact David Reid at davidreid24@gmail.com or 970-581-2707 (voice or text).

First Church will offer back-to-back studies that have a gender focus. Women and men (or is that men and women?) are encouraged to attend both!

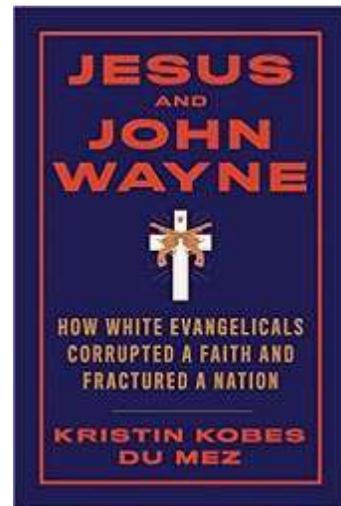

Sandy Merriweather will facilitate a study of Wild Mercy: Living the Fierce and Tender Wisdom of the Women Mystics at 7 p.m. Wednesdays beginning January 13 for five weeks. Published in 2019, Wild Mercy by Mirabai Starr has been praised by the late spiritual teacher Ram Dass, Episcopal priest and author Barbara Brown Taylor and novelist and nonfiction writer Anne Lamott. Hardback $11.60, e-book $9. Here's the author's website.

Beginning Thursday, February 18, David Reid will lead a five-week study of Jesus and John Wayne: How White Evangelicals Corrupted a Faith and Fractured a Nation. This is a comprehensive study of masculinity in white evangelical culture from the anti-communist crusade of the 1960s to evangelical support for Donald Trump. The author is Kristin Kobes Du Mez, a professor of history and gender studies at Calvin College. Englewood Review of Books selected Jesus and John Wayne as the book of the year for 2020. Hardback $29; e-book $15. Read an interview with Du Mez here.

To register and obtain the Zoom link for either class or for more information contact David Reid at davidreid24@gmail.com or 970-581-2707 (voice or text).

Elizabeth Sink will lead the discussion at 3 p.m. January 17 for the Spirituality Book of the Month group hosted by the Northern Colorado Faith Library and Fort Collins Interfaith Council. The book is You Don't Have to Be Wrong for Me to Be Right: Finding Faith without Fanaticism by Brad Hirschfield. For details and a Zoom link, contact Martha Conant at marthaconant@gmail.com. Here is Sink's TedxCSU Talk on interfaith cooperation.

Are you clued in to Faith In Progress, the KRFC radio show hosted by Rabbi Hillel Katzir and Rev. Joseph Moore that presents local issues from a multifaith perspective? It airs at 6:30 p.m. Tuesdays at 88.9 FM. Podcasts of previous Faith in Progress episodes can be found here.

Regional

Hurry if you want to register for Justice for Everyday Life, a course open to everyone via Zoom that begins January 3. The group meets 2-4 p.m. every Sunday in January and is sponsored by the Lay Servant Ministries of the Rocky Mountain Conference. Register here.

---

Ring Lake Ranch in Dubois, Wyoming offers a variety of speakers throughout the summer in a beautiful, rustic setting. Because of uncertainty about the pandemic, the number of participants has been restricted for 2021. It's about a 6-hour drive from Fort Collins. You'll find some familiar names and some new ones in the lineup here.

---

United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Kansas City solved the problem of pandemic restrictions by pulling together highlights from the last three years of its Christmas Eve extravaganzas.

Tune in at your convenience to enjoy singers, dancers, choirs, orchestras, handbells, kids in pajamas, drum and soprano sax solos, re-enactments of the birth story on stage and on video, and even Santa Claus.
