

NoCo Beet

October 4, 2021

This is our twelfth issue of NoCo Beet.

We're one year old!

But this is not the newsletter we expected to be producing after 12 months. Some local events are still being canceled and others moved to online webinars. It's clear that faith formation continues to be affected by the pandemic. And yet the opportunities for online learning keep exploding. With a bit of determination, a little free time and occasionally some serious money, you can find a world of opportunities to grow spiritually. Even in a not-yet-ended pandemic.
